Deborah Donaldson Appointed Director of The Financial Managers Society, Inc.

- Donaldson's appointment as Chair of the Internal Audit Council sealed the deal -

CHICAGO, ILL., June 25, 2008 – Deborah Donaldson, president and CEO of Alpha-Numeric Consulting, LLC. in Hoschton, Ga. was appointed Chair of the Internal Audit Council for the Financial Managers Society (FMS) at its annual meeting in Orlando, Fla., this week. As Council Chair, Donaldson will serve a two-year term on the board of directors. Donaldson has been a member of FMS since 2000 has served as a workshop and conference presenter for numerous educational programs throughout the years.

Donaldson, along with the rest of the volunteers on the board of directors, is charged with guiding the association as it fulfills its mission to enhance the professional development of its members – CFOs, controllers, internal auditors and other financial professionals from community banks, thrifts and credit unions.

“I’m honored to have the opportunity to utilize my experience working in the banking, software and consulting industries, to advance FMS” states Donaldson. “As a board member, I’d like to help make FMS the first place anyone thinks of when they need information on the financial services industry, upcoming regulatory issues, and continuing education.”

In her capacity as president and CEO, Donaldson is responsible for the day-to-day activities and the overall financial stability of Alpha-Numeric Consulting, LLC. Donaldson is a frequent speaker, an accomplished author and an industry expert with nearly 20 years of experience in the financial services industry. Previous professional highlights include serving as senior vice president of a national consulting firm and authoring the 2nd edition of the FMS published Internal Audit Desk Reference.

“The success of FMS depends upon the quality of its volunteer leadership,” states FMS CEO Dick Yingst. “We are confident that Donaldson’s election will enhance the success of the society and further our ability to serve the industry.”
